

Bhutan Energy Storage Power Production Company

Overview

About Druk Green Power Corporation Limited: Druk Green Power Corporation Limited (DGPC), a subsidiary of Druk Holding and Investments Limited, is the sole generation Utility in Bhutan. It was formed in December 2007 to develop and manage Bhutan's hydropower resources and assets. What is the main energy source in Bhutan?

On-grid hydropower is the country's main energy source. Bhutan operates four major hydroelectric facilities, several small and mini hydroelectric generators, and has a handful of further sites in development. Many of the small and mini hydropower plants in Bhutan serve remote villages that remain disconnected from the power grid.

Why is Tata Power partnering with Bhutan?

Mr. Dasho Chhewang Rinzin, MD, DGPC said, "This strategic partnership with Tata Power is in keeping with Bhutan's aspirations to maximize benefits to the people of Bhutan through fast-tracking the harnessing of its huge renewable energy resources for its economic development and long-term energy security.

How will Bhutan achieve its energy goals?

Bhutan plans to achieve this target through diversification in its energy portfolio beyond traditional hydropower, which would include solar and geothermal energy. This will extend to diversifying project structuring and financing through such strategic partnerships.

Why should Bhutan invest in hydropower?

Largely driven by hydropower—a vital part of Bhutan's economy, capitalizing on this national asset will ensure that its growing power demands are met while also ensuring economic benefits including green job creation and infrastructure development.

How much hydro capacity does DGPC have in Bhutan?

DGPC has a portfolio of 2453 MW of Hydro capacity in Bhutan, a large percentage of which is being exported to India, especially during the monsoon months. DGPC is envisioned to achieve 5,500 MW Hydro capacity within the next 5 years timeline including investments & development of Small Hydro and solar Projects.
