

Energy storage container manufacturing and processing manufacturers

Overview

What is a utility-scale battery energy storage system?

Our utility-scale battery energy storage systems (ESS) store power generated by solar or wind and then dispatch the stored power to the grid when needed, such as during periods of peak electricity demand. Our ESS solution increases the grid's resilience, reliability, and performance while helping reduce emissions and mitigate climate change.

How do battery energy storage systems work?

The growth and success of renewable energy relies heavily on the ability to store energy. That's where we come in. Our utility-scale battery energy storage systems (ESS) store power generated by solar or wind and then dispatch the stored power to the grid when needed, such as during periods of peak electricity demand.

What is a ME6 battery container?

With its capability to discharge for 2 and 4 hours, the ME6 container is designed for energy-shifting applications, such as renewables integration, peak demand, and capacity support. A single battery container features an industry-leading 6.0 MWh energy density.

Where are our battery cells and modules made?

Our battery cells and modules are manufactured in Clarksville, Tennessee, and are expected to qualify for domestic content under IRA provisions. Our BMS is 100% designed, developed, programmed, and tested in the United States to help ensure the security and safety of our grid systems.
