

Iran Emergency Communications Command Base Station

Overview

The release of the footage of the Iranian underground missile bases provided the situation for the lawmakers to show that they had not weakened the military of Iran and it was a show of strength by Iran in response to the western powers, especially the US, speaking of military options against Iran in spite of the nuclear deal, according to . Hajizadeh said that Iran was not seeking to start a war but "if enemies make a mistake, missile bases will erupt.

Did Iran strike on Al-Udeid Air Base in Qatar damage US missile defences?

New satellite imagery confirms Iran's ballistic missile strike on Al-Udeid Air Base in Qatar destroyed a USD 15 million secure communications dome, exposing vulnerabilities in US missile defences despite Pentagon claims of minimal damage.

Are Iranian missiles ready to be launched from underground bases?

Amir Ali Hajizadeh stated that: "Iranian missiles of varying ranges are ready to be launched from underground bases once Supreme Leader Ayatollah Ali Khamenei orders to do so," adding that "Iran created missile bases in all the provinces and cities throughout the country at a depth of 500 meters."

How are Iranian military bases distributed?

Iranian military bases are distributed across the country, reflecting its strategic depth and layered defense approach. These bases range from those housing the regular Army (Artesh) and Navy (Nedaja) to facilities dedicated to the Islamic Revolutionary Guard Corps (IRGC), including its Aerospace Force and Navy (IRGC-N).

Why did Iran obliterate its communications node?

For a base long touted as the linchpin of American air dominance and rapid strike capability in the Gulf, the confirmed obliteration of its secure communications node is a potent demonstration of both the vulnerabilities of static infrastructure and the evolving missile threat Tehran can now project far beyond its borders.

Did Iran's missile strike shatter a secure US comms hub at Al-Udeid?

Satellite imagery exposes how Iran's missile strike shattered a secure US comms hub at Al-Udeid, raising new questions about the Pentagon's interception claims.

How are Iranian military bases protected?

Iranian military bases are protected by a combination of physical security measures, including perimeter fences, guard posts, and air defense systems. Many sensitive facilities are also located underground or in remote areas. 9.
